To buy from Poundland – calculator, calendar blanks (10 for £1) and pen (10 for £1) – note book from Stampin up

Steps

1. From the scrap backing board cut the base layer 6 ¼ inches x 9 ½ inches
2. Using the Speciality Typeset paper cut a piece 11 ½ inches x 8 ¼ inches, score at 1 inch on all four sides, trim corners and cover scrap backing board, folding over excess underneath.
3. Using your main colour (same colour as the grosgrain ribbon) cut a piece 9 ½ inches x 8 ¼ inches. Score on the shorter side at 1 inch and 2 inches. Adhere first 1inch (scored) of cover to the base of the typeset covered board. Cover underside of board to enclose the front flap with a piece of Sahara sand or neutral card stock cut to 6 ¼ x 9 ½
4. Adhere calculator with sticky strip.
5. Cut a small piece of chevron ribbon and adhere with sticky strip. Cover pen with a small piece of Typeset DSP (5 inches x 2 inches). Tie in place

- Using coordinating card stock make pocket for note book – stamp a piece of card 6 ¼ inches x 4 ½ inches with I love Lace and coordinating ink. Score at 1 inch and 1 ¼ inches on sides and bottom, trim corners as shown and adhere pocket using sticky strip

- Decorate calendar blank with ribbon and adhere to the front of the pocket

- Embellish notebook with stamping using I Love Lace as a base to cover notebook, with swirls from Everything Eleanor and Stippled Blossom Flowers (or decorate as desired)

- Decorate top of flap as shown with ribbon and adhere to top flap.

There are no new ideas in this world, just creative thought applied in different ways. Thank you to those people who have inspired me, and I hope that you find inspiration in this project to recreate it your way. All products used are © Stampin' Up!, Do CASE this project for your own classes, but please don't try and sell these instructions on, other than in a taught class one-on-one. It's bad for your soul and makes me sad. It would be lovely if you use them and if you make something you share on social media, please consider a link back to me at www.craftyhallett.co.uk.
